

Election Notice

In accordance with Elections Regulations 12 October 2022

2022 Annual Guild Elections

NOMINATIONS are invited from interested and eligible persons for the following positions in the 2022 Annual Guild elections:

Nominations are called for (number of positions):

President (1)
Vice President (Secretary) (1)	First Nations Officer (1)*
Vice President (Treasurer) (1)	International Officer (1) *
Welfare Officer (1)	Postgraduate Officer (1)*
Education Officer (1)	Science & Engineering Faculty Councillor (2)
Clubs and Societies Officer (1)	Business Faculty Councillor (2)
Engagement Officer (1)	Law Faculty Councillor (2)
Womens Officer (1)*	Creative Industries Faculty Councillor (2)
Queer Officer (1)*	Education Faculty Councillor (2)
Environment Officer (1)	Health Faculty Councillor (2)
Disability Officer (1)	Media Team (up to 5)
	Board (2)
	National Union of Students Delegates (7)

All positions marked with an asterisk (*) have eligibility requirements to nominate, as per the Constitution & Regulations.

Nominations which comply with the Constitution & Regulations may be made at any time from 9AM 12th September 2022. Nominations must be received no later than 5PM 25th September 2022.

Nomination forms are available available online at www.qutguild.com/elections or by emailing the returning officer at elections@qutguild.com. The use of these forms is compulsory.

HOW TO LODGE NOMINATIONS

By Email: elections@qutguild.com

Eligibility Criteria

- Only a student may stand for election as an elected officer.
 - Guild Newspaper Editor can be held by one person or shared by up to 5 people
 - Faculty Councillor candidates must be enrolled for study in the faculty that they nominate in. If you are studying a dual degree you can only nominate for one faculty.
 - Only Queer students can nominate for the Queer Officer.
 - Only Women can nominate for the Womens Officer.
 - Only First Nations students can nominate for the First Nations Officer.
 - Only international students can nominate for the International Students Officer.
 - Only post graduate students can nominate for the Postgraduate Officer.
-

Nominations

Nominations must be made on the forms available from the Guild Offices, by email from elections@qutguild.com or from the website (<https://qutguild.com/about-us/elections/>)

All nomination forms must contain the signature of the Candidate, nominator and seconder, all of which must be currently enrolled students of QUT.

The form must be accompanied by copies of the 'Confirmation of Enrolment' for the Candidate, Nominator and Seconder or they will be deemed incomplete and ineligible.

Electoral groups should submit all nominations and documentation together wherever possible to reduce administrative burden.

When nominating as a member of an electoral group the group only need supply one 'Confirmation of Enrolment' for each student, irrespective of whether they are candidate, nominator or seconder and how many times they nominate or second a candidate.

Each candidate may only nominate for one office for QUT Guild and, if so desired, as a delegate to NUS conference.

VOTING

Voting will be exclusively online (electronic ballot) from 9AM Monday 24th October 2022 to 5PM Friday 28th October 2020.

The voting link will be distributed via QUT email directly to all enrolled students and promoted through Guild channels.

The online voting system randomises the order of the candidates on the ballot pages each time a new voter logs on.

NUS Delegates

Up to 7 positions will be elected for delegates to NUS National Conference.

Detail on the eligibility and voting for these positions can be found at;
<http://nus.asn.au/en/nus/documents>

Returning Officer
elections@qutguild.com
12th September 2022
