- Tick this box if you are happy to join our Student Assist mailing list- you will receive approximately 3-4 emails per semester notifying you of exclusion dates, census dates, appointment times for Free Tax Help, general information about MOPP policies and job/volunteer opportunities.

Our advocacy officers do not give legal advice; they will refer you to the appropriate service or firm. Any communication in relation to this form is only intended for the email recipient. It is your responsibility to notify us in advance of all correct and accurate information corresponding to your issue so as to ensure any non-legal advice received in this email is as accurate as possible. QUT Guild Advocacy and Student Assist is a free academic advice service for students, working to assist students in the student experience. It remains the responsibility of the student for their representation and any outcomes from academic advice given. If you are in any doubt seek additional support relevant to the area of enquiry. The QUT Guild does not take any responsibility for the advice given by our partnering law firms. All of the information you have provided is confidential and kept within the Advocacy Service database.
