QUT GUILD

Elections Notice

2026 QUT Guild Annual Elections

By nominating for election to the QUT Guild, you are joining a proud legacy of student advocacy at QUT that dates back to 1966. For more than 60 years, the QUT Guild's Student Representative Council (SRC) has been the official voice of students, standing up for student rights, leading impactful campaigns, and working to build a more inclusive and supportive student experience.

Serving on the SRC is a unique opportunity to grow as a leader and changemaker. It's a hands-on learning experience where you'll represent your peers, advocate for real change, and help shape the future of student life at QUT. This is your chance to contribute to a vibrant tradition of student leadership - driven by purpose, passion, and a commitment to making QUT better for all students.

Positions

Nominations are called for (the number of positions available is indicated in brackets):

- President (1)
- Vice President (Secretary) (1)
- Vice President (Treasurer) (1)
- Education Officer (1)
- Welfare Officer (1)
- Engagement Officer (1)
- Clubs and Societies Officer (1)
- Environment Officer (1)
- Women's Officer (1)*
- Queer Officer (1)*
- First Nations Officer (1)*
- International Students Officer (1)*
- Postgraduate Students Officer (1)*
- Disability Officer (1)*
- Media Editor (1 position shared by up to 5)
- Business and Law Councillor (2)
- Creative Industries, Education and Social Justice Councillor (2)
- Engineering Councillor (2)
- Health Councillor (2)
- Science Councillor (2)
- Board Member (3)
- National Union of Students (NUS) Annual Conference delegate (7)

Eligibility

Each nominee is responsible for ensuring, before nomination, that they are eligible for election to the position nominated for, and that their nomination complies with the QUT Guild's Constitution (C), Regulations (R), and Election Regulations (ER) (https://qutguild.com/about/governance/).

Only a currently enrolled QUT student may nominate for election.

All positions marked with an asterisk (*) above have specific eligiblity requirements:

- Only female students may nominate for Women's Officer.
- Only queer students may nominate for Queer Officer.
- Only Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander students may nominate for First Nations Officer.
- Only international students may nominate for International Students Officer.
- Only postgraduate students may nominate for Postgraduate Students Officer.
- Only students living with a disability, chronic health condition, mental health condition or injury may nominate for Disability Officer.

A student enrolled in a dual degree administered by two different faculties may nominate for the position of Councillor in either faculty, but not both.

A student may only nominate for one (1) position only and, should they so choose, may also nominate as a delegate to the National Union of Students (NUS) Annual Conference.

Up to five (5) students may nominate to share the position of Media Editor. Media Editor nominees must remain independent and cannot nominate as part of an Electoral Group.

Electoral Groups

An Electoral Group may be registered by two or more nominees (excluding Board Member and Media Editor) by completing an Electoral Group Registration Form (https://qutguild.com/nominate).

QUT GUILD

Elections Notice

2026 QUT Guild Annual Elections

Term of Office

If elected to a position, your term will commence on 1 December this year and continue for one year (two years for Board Member). To remain in the position, you must remain an enrolled student at QUT throughout your term of office. For undergraduate and most postgraduate students, this means and remaining enrolled in at least one unit of study in Semester 1 and Semester 2 during your term of office.

Before nominating, consider whether you will still be a student for the entire term of office, because if you stop being a student before your term ends, you will lose any position you are elected to.

Mandatory Candidates' Briefings

All candidates are required to virtually attend one of two scheduled Candidates' Briefings:

- Monday 14 September 2026, 4:00 pm, or
- Tuesday 15 September 2026, 6:00 pm.

Candidate briefings provide information about campaigning rules and expectations. You will also be provided with information regarding what happens if you are elected, including induction and what to expect in your first three months in office. A Microsoft Teams calendar invite will be sent to all candidates prior to the briefings.

Optional Strategy Briefing – candidates for President, Secretary and Treasurer

Candidates for President, Vice President (Secretary) and Vice President (Treasurer) are invited to attend an optional strategy briefing with the Guild General Manager:

- Wednesday 16 September 2026, 10:30 am to 12:00 pm, Level 2, C Block, Kelvin Grove

Nominating

Nominations must be made on the Nomination Form (https://qutguild.com/nominate) and submitted with a Proof of Enrolment Letter (https://qutvirtual4.qut.edu.au/group/student/enrolment/proof-of-enrolment-and-academic-records). Your Proof of Enrolment Letter must:

- confirm that you are enrolled in at least one unit in the current teaching period for your course (for most undergraduate and coursework postgraduate students this means Semester 2); and
- be dated after the Census date for the current teaching period for your course (for most undergraduate and coursework postgraduate students this means on or after 15 August 2026).

High Degree Research (HDR) students may submit alternative documentation from QUT confirming their enrolment in the current research period.

To nominate, a completed Nomination Form and Proof of Enrolment Letter must be submitted by email to elections@qutguild.com. All complete nominations must be received by the Returning Officer no later than 1:00 pm, Friday 4 September 2026. Late nominations will not be accepted.

Submit all documents as email attachments. Links to documents will not be accepted.

Electoral Groups should submit all Nomination Forms and Proof of Enrolment Letters together.

Voting

Voting will be by electronic ballot from 9:00 am, Tuesday 6 October 2026 to 5:00 pm, Friday 9 October 2026. Voting will be via a link published on the Guild Elections webpage https://qutguild.com/elections/ at 9:00 am, Tuesday 6 October 2026.

Returning Officer
17 August 2026
elections@qutguild.com